Rebecca focuses on litigation matters with an emphasis on civil defense. She has a broad scope of experience from commercial litigation and insurance defense to products liability and trusts.

Highlights

During her time in school she developed a heart for community outreach and volunteering. She was instrumental in the establishment of a lending library at St. Francis Children's Hospital. She further founded "Reverse Trick or Treating" at the Children's Hospital, where volunteers in costume deliver smiles and treats to families with children unable to leave their beds.
