

Colin Hampton Tucker

Partner

918.582.1173

chtucker@rhodesokla.com

Highlights

Before entering private practice, Colin served as judicial law clerk to the Honorable James O. Ellison and the Honorable Sven Erik Holmes, both of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma. He is a Past President of the Federal Bar Association Chapter for the Northern and Eastern Districts of Oklahoma.

Business and contract disputes, construction liability and matters involving intellectual property are focuses of his law practice.

Colin serves as an Adjunct Settlement Judge for the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma.

He has served on the Tulsa County Bar Association Board of Directors and as Editor of The Tulsa Lawyer. He completed mediation training with the Oklahoma Mediation Institute in Civil, Commercial and Employment Mediation and qualified as a mediator for the City of Tulsa's Project Early Settlement. Colin served a six-year term as a member of the board of Tulsa Zoo Friends, eight years on the board of Up With Trees, and also was a board member of Tulsa Data Science. He served a three-year term on the Alumni Council of Dartmouth College.

Education

- Undergraduate School: Dartmouth College
- Law School: Columbia University (Articles Editor, Journal of Law and the Arts)

Admitted to Practice

- Oklahoma (including its three federal district courts)
- United States Court of Appeals (Tenth Circuit)
- Cherokee Nation
- Choctaw Nation
- Muskogee Creek Nation
- Sac & Fox Nation
- U.S. District Court, Eastern and Western Districts of Arkansas

Field of Practice

- Business Litigation and Contract Disputes
- Professional Liability
- Environment, Pollution and Natural Resources
- Native American Law, Doing Business with Indian Tribes and Tribal Gaming

Recognized by:

Outstanding Young Lawyer, Tulsa County Bar Association