

Jennifer L. Struble

Partner

918.582.1173

jstruble@rhodesokla.com

Jennifer Struble is deeply experienced in civil appeals at both the state and federal levels, including original actions and related appellate proceedings.

Highlights

Jennifer is recognized for strong written and oral advocacy, as well as for producing clear, persuasive, and practical legal analysis. Jennifer's broader litigation experience encompasses bad faith insurance defense, employment law, professional negligence, construction defects, government relations, probate, and general civil litigation.

Education

Undergraduate School: Oklahoma State University (B.S., Political Science)

Master's Program: University of Oklahoma (M.A., Public Administration)

Law School: University of Tulsa College of Law (Executive Editor, Tulsa Law Review)

Admitted to Practice

Oklahoma (including its three federal district courts)

U.S. District Court, Colorado

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit

Muscogee (Creek) Nation Tribal Court

Professional Affiliations

Tulsa County Bar Association

- Secretary, 2026
- Law-related Education Committee

Oklahoma Bar Association

- Law-related Education Committee

Oklahoma Association of Defense Counsel

Recognized by:

As a lawyer with an extensive appellate practice, Jennifer's work can result in published, precedential court decisions. Jennifer's published opinions include:

• McClain v. Brainerd Chemical Co., 2019 OK CIV APP 15, 436 P.3d 752

• Christ's Legacy Church v. Trinity Group Architects, 2018 OK CIV APP 31, 417 P.3d 1223

• Stricklen v. O.I.P.M., L.L.C., 2017 OK CIV APP 3, 394 P.3d 290

• Calhoon v. Oakes, 2016 OK CIV APP 61, 423 P.3d 664

© Copyright Rhodes Hieronymus 2026. All Rights Reserved.

• Lopez v. Rollins, 2013 OK CIV APP 43, 303 P.3d 911

• Larry Snyder & Co. v. Clark Miller d/b/a Underground Utilities, 648 F.3d 1156 (10th Cir. 2011)

• Southern Hospitality, Inc. v. Zurich Am. Ins. Co., 393 F.3d 1137 (10th Cir. 2004)

Jennifer has been named among Oklahoma's top appellate attorneys by SuperLawyers in 2023, 2024 and 2025.

© Copyright Rhodes Hieronymus 2026. All Rights Reserved.